

Hamilton Board of Health Warns that EEE Risk Remains Moderate in Hamilton

October 30, 2019

Please be vigilant about avoiding mosquito bites. The risk of contracting EEE remains moderate in Hamilton, and may still increase, until the first hard frost. Until then, please use bug spray and wear long sleeves when outside between dusk and dawn.

